

Bards and partners are cordially invited to gorseth

kernow
THE CORNISH GORSEDD

Raising the bar for Cornish culture and arts

The Gorsedh Kernow Annual Conference

Venue: Camborne Centenary Methodist Church, Wesley Street, Camborne TR14 8EG

Parking: Side car park of Tesco

Date: Saturday 10 October, 2009

Directions: From the A30 take exit to Camborne (West) A3047

PROGRAMME (more details on website – www.gorsethkernow.org.uk)

10:00 Registration, coffee/tea

10:30 Opening and welcome – Bardh Meur- Mick Paynter

10:35 Cornwall – A Region of Culture – Julie Seyler and Miranda Bird explain the current project, the aim and Cornwall's ambitions

12:00 Meet three practitioners:

1. Pol Hodge – Bringing Kernewek into the Cornish film industry
2. Jowdy Davey – programming Lowender Peran
3. Neil Davey - The challenges and opportunities of managing and promoting Dalla

1:00 During lunch there will be two performances each lasting 20 minutes

Jack Morrison 'Nebes geryow a-dro dhe'n SWF!' (A short film)

Pauline Sheppard 'The Bus Shelter' – (A short play)

2:00 Bewnans Kernow – Colin Roberts will introduce the reasons why a Cornish Partnership is positive, what it will achieve and how it will develop.

Colin's presentation will be followed by a plenary session facilitated by Bert Biscoe which will address the question:

'What should the future role of Gorsedh Kernow be in Bewnans Kernow?'

3:45 Finish – Meur ras – Kannas Bardh Meur - Maureen Fuller

RSVP by 5 October, 2009 with your payment to:

Ross Williams, Krowji, West Park, Redruth TR15 3AJ

Cheque payable to Gorseth Kernow

Ph: 01209 313 200 Mob: 07779 467 640

I / We require ___ pasties Vegetarian Option Required ___

I am booking for ___ people and enclose a cheque for £ ___

Cost with lunch is £5:00 per person

Cost per person without lunch is £3.50 per person

NB: Lunch must be paid for in advance